LYRICS FOR ALBUM BELOW

🎧 ACT I: AWAKENING

---

1. Operating Manual (Intro)

(Spoken word + atmospheric background)

We were born into a system…
…without instructions.

No manual for the planet.
No blueprint for survival.

They taught us how to compete…
…but never how to cooperate.

This is not chaos—
This is mismanagement.

We are passengers…
on a ship we don’t understand.

Welcome to…
Spaceship Earth.

---

2. Spaceship Earth

(Hook)
We on a spaceship, floating in the dark
No borders in the sky, who drew lines on the map?
Same sun, same air, same spark
But they divide the whole just to keep us apart

(Verse 1)
Look—planet spinning, no captain in sight
Resources plenty but they program the fight
Food in abundance but they ration the plate
Teach you chase money while they own the estate

We mining the soil, but who owns the ground?
We drinking the water, but it’s priced by the pound
You call it economy—I call it control
They monetize life, then they tax your soul

(Hook)
We on a spaceship, drifting through time
Everybody equal but they sell you a lie
One crew, one mission, one design
But they split the system just to profit the divide

(Verse 2)
No such thing as “them”—it’s only “us”
But they build illusion just to manufacture trust
Media noise got your mind in chains
While the real architects remain unnamed

You fighting your brother for crumbs on the floor
While giants upstairs keep locking the door
You think you free? That’s the ultimate trick
A prison so smooth you don’t notice the brick

(Bridge)
No passports in space

No race in the void
No nations above
Just systems destroyed

(Hook – Outro)
We on a spaceship, wake up, align
The system ain't broken—it's designed

---

3. Invisible Empires

(Hook)
You don't see the crown but the king still reign
Invisible chains got you locked in the game
Pulling all the strings but they never show face
That's the power of an invisible empire's place

(Verse 1)
No throne, no crown, no public display
But decisions get made that control your day
Stock market moves, governments bend
But you never see where it starts or ends

They own the networks, control the feed
Shape your thoughts before you think what you need
Narratives crafted, truth rearranged
By the time you catch it, your mind's been changed

(Hook)
Invisible hands in the system's code
You think you driving but they built the road

(Verse 2)
They don't need armies—they got influence
Control perception, that's true affluence
If they own attention, they own your will Turn your fear into profit, your silence to skill

You scrolling for hours, they tracking your soul
Every click, every move, every piece of control
You think it's freedom, but look again
That algorithm knows you better than friends

(Bridge)
Not kings of land…

But kings of mind…
You'll never fight…
What you can't find…

(Hook – Outro)
Invisible empires never fall with war
You gotta see the system to break the core

---

4. Grunch Protocol

(Hook)
Welcome to the Grunch—where the giants feed
On your labor, your mind, your time, your need
Corporate crowns but they never bleed
That's the Grunch protocol—control with greed

(Verse 1)
Conglomerates bigger than nations combined
Writing the laws while you standing in line
Lobby the system, rewrite the game
Same few players but they switch the name

They don't build value—they acquire and own
Turn innovation into corporate zones
Buy out the future before it can rise
Then sell it back to you, packaged in lies

(Hook)
Grunch of giants, moving in silence
Economic warfare disguised as compliance

(Verse 2)
They patent the seeds, they control the food
Turn life itself into revenue streams
Healthcare costly, education a debt
You born in the system already in net

Media channels? Owned by a few
So what you believe ain't chosen by you
It's curated truth, filtered reality
Engineered thoughts, mass mentality

(Bridge)
Not conspiracy…

Just structure and design…
Follow the money…
You'll see every line…

(Hook – Outro)
Welcome to the Grunch—now you see the frame
Next step… we don't play the game

✅ NEXT STEP

If you want, I'll continue with:

👉 ACT II: THE GIANTS (Tracks 5–8)
Where things get darker, more aggressive, and confrontational.

Or I can:

- Turn one of these into a studio-ready hit song (with flow patterns + beat style)
- Add chorus melodies / rap cadence guidance
- Or match each track to a visual/music video concept

Just tell me how you want to proceed.

yes continue

Continuing the album with ACT II: THE GIANTS—this section is heavier, more confrontational, and exposes structure, power concentration, and systemic control. The tone shifts: darker beats, sharper delivery, more aggressive cadence.

🎧 ACT II: THE GIANTS (Understanding the Enemy)

5. Supranational Kings

(Hook)
They don't run countries—they run the kings

Pull every wire, control every string
Borders are lines but power got wings
Bow to the rise of supranational kings

(Verse 1)
You vote for a leader, they answer above
Policies shaped in a boardroom of gloves
Suits in the shadows, signatures silent
Ain't no democracy when money get violent

Trade deals drafted, nations comply
Economic pressure—do or you die
Sanctions and leverage, currency games
Break down a country without any flames

(Hook)
No throne, no crown, but they still reign
Different flag, same hidden chain

(Verse 2)
Global agendas dressed as reform
You think it's progress—it's power in form
They fund both sides, they play both ends
Win every outcome, doesn't depend

War or peace—it's profit either way
Rebuild the ruins they helped decay
Loans with conditions, interest high
You borrow your future just to survive

(Bridge)
Above the nations…
Above the law…
Invisible rulers…
You never saw…

(Hook – Outro)
Supranational kings don't fall from war
You gotta break what they built at the core

---

6. Pyramid Systems

(Hook)
Built like a pyramid—top stays rich

Base hold the weight while they tighten the grip
You climb all your life but you stuck in the script
That's the pyramid system—they never let slip

(Verse 1)
Top of the structure—few in control
Bottom majority carrying load
Labor exploited, time turned to gold
But the wealth go up, never down the road

Hierarchy locked, mobility rare
They sell you a dream but don't give you a share
You work and you grind just to barely exist
While they multiply wealth with a flick of the wrist

(Hook)
You at the bottom, feeding the peak
They call it success but it's structured to keep

(Verse 2)
Education trains you to follow commands
Not to question the system or challenge the plans
You memorize data, repeat what you're told
Never learn how the structure is controlled

Corporate ladders—illusion of rise
But ceilings are hidden right under the sky
You think you advancing but look at the scheme
You still in the system—they just changed your seat

(Bridge)
The higher it goes…
The smaller the few…
The lower you stand…
The less they need you…

(Hook – Outro)
Pyramid system—ancient design
Modern control dressed up as climb

---

7. All-Seeing Markets

(Hook)
All-seeing markets, watching your move

Predict what you want before you even choose
Turn your behavior into revenue streams
They monetize life, they monetize dreams

(Verse 1)
Data is gold and you giving it free
Every click, every search, your identity
They map your desires, your habits, your fears
Then sell you a product that suddenly appears

Ads in your mind before you can think
You call it coincidence—look at the link
Patterns get tracked, behavior refined
They shaping the future by shaping your mind

(Hook)
You think you browsing—you being observed
Every action recorded, every pattern preserved

(Verse 2)
Stock markets rising on human reaction
Fear and hype turned into traction
Media cycles designed to provoke
Volatility engineered—watch how they cloak

They crash it, they buy it, then sell it again
Profit from panic, repeat to the end
You call it a system—I call it a loop
Where the masses react and the giants recoup

(Bridge)
The eye never sleeps…
The system sees all…
You think you in control…
But you answering the call…

(Hook – Outro)
All-seeing markets don't need a face
They control the flow of time and space

---

8. Debt is the Weapon

(Hook)
Debt is the weapon—they don't need guns

Chain you for life before you begun
Interest rising, you forced to run
Paying forever, you never done

(Verse 1)
Born in the system, already in debt
Education a loan you ain't finished yet
You chasing a job just to pay it back
But the interest stacking, you off track

Mortgages heavy, you buying your cage
Thirty-year sentence just to own your space
Credit cards trap you, minimum due
But the balance growing faster than you

(Hook)
You don't own nothing—they own you
Signed your freedom in a contract too

(Verse 2)
Nations in debt to international funds
Policies dictated, sovereignty undone
They lend you money then tell you how
To run your country—they control you now

Austerity measures, cut down the aid
People suffer just to get it repaid
But the loan never ends—it just multiplies
Modern-day slavery in financial disguise

(Bridge)
No chains on your hands…
But chains on your name…
A number, a score…
You trapped in the game…

(Hook – Outro)
Debt is the weapon—silent and clean
The strongest control that's ever been seen

⚔ TRANSITION TO NEXT ACT

At this point in the album:

- The enemy (Grunch / Giants) is fully exposed
- The listener understands the systems of control
- Now comes the shift…

👉 ACT III: DAVID (Synergetics Awakens)
This is where:

- Power shifts from external systems → internal intelligence
- Tone becomes hopeful, strategic, enlightened—but still powerful

If you're ready, I'll continue with:

🎯 Tracks 9–12 (ACT III: Synergetics / David Rising)
—this is where the album becomes transformational and revolutionary.

continue

Now we transition into the turning point of the album—ACT III: DAVID (Synergetics Awakens).
The tone shifts from exposure → empowerment. The energy becomes focused, intelligent, precise. This is where the "weapons" are no longer physical—but conceptual, structural, and metaphysical.

🎧 ACT III: DAVID (Synergetics Awakens)

9. Synergetics (David Rising)

(Hook)
I ain't got armor, I don't need a shield
Knowledge in my mind—that's the power I wield
They built it on force, I rebuild the field
Synergetics rising—truth revealed

(Verse 1)
Not by strength, not by size
But by patterns hidden from the naked eye
Geometry speaking, structure divine
Everything connected—every line aligned

They taught you fragments, broke up the whole
So you never see how the systems control
But once you see synergy—how parts relate
You unlock a power they can't regulate

(Hook)
David with a vision, not a sword in hand
Understanding systems—that's the master plan

(Verse 2)
Energy flows where awareness goes
That's the code that the system don't show
You chasing effects, I'm tracing cause
Breaking down structure, rewriting laws

You think it's small, but the shift is deep
Change the pattern, the whole system leap
From micro to macro, it all connect
One right move got a global effect

(Bridge)
Not muscle…
Not might…
It's clarity…
That wins the fight…

(Hook – Outro)
Synergetics rising—David stands
With the universe mapped inside his hands

10. Weightless Weapons

(Hook)
No bullets, no blades, no physical scars
Ideas hit harder—they travel afar
Weightless weapons breaking the bars
Mind over matter—that's who we are

(Verse 1)
Thought is energy, sharper than steel
Invisible force but the impact is real
You can't see it, but it shapes the world
Every invention first unfurled

Before every system, before every throne
Was a single idea in someone's dome
So if I control what I think and design
I control the future ahead of time

(Hook)
They can't stop it, they can't defend
Against a mind that can transcend

(Verse 2)
Words turn to movements, movements to change
Change turns systems completely rearranged
That's why they filter what you consume
Control your thoughts, control your room

But once you break free from mental chains
You see through illusion, dismantle the frame
No need for violence, no need for war
A shift in perception rewrites the core

(Bridge)
The lightest force…
The strongest blow…
A single truth…
Can overthrow…

(Hook – Outro)
Weightless weapons—silent attack
Once you awaken, no turning back

---

11. Tensegrity Flow

(Hook)
Hold it together without the strain
Push and pull but it still remain
Balance the force—nothing in vain
That's tensegrity flow—structure in gain

(Verse 1)
Compression here, tension there
Invisible forces everywhere
It looks unstable but it stands so strong
Because every part know where it belong

That’s the lesson hidden in design
Not domination—but alignment of lines
You don’t overpower—you redistribute
Energy balanced—that’s how you do it

(Hook)
Not rigid, not weak—flexible control
That’s how you stabilize the whole

(Verse 2)
Society broken ‘cause balance is lost
Too much weight at the top—that’s the cost
But if we restructure, realign the base
We can rebuild a sustainable space

You don’t fight pressure—you redirect
That’s how systems correct and perfect
Nature shows it, but we ignore
Trying brute force when there’s something more

(Bridge)
Not force…
But flow…
Not control…
But know…

(Hook – Outro)
Tensegrity living—now you see
Strength in balance—that’s true mastery

---

12. Critical Path

(Hook)
We at the turning point—no going back
Choose the right move—that’s the critical path
One wrong step and the system collapse
One right shift and we change the map

(Verse 1)
Humanity standing at the edge of time
Resources enough but we stuck in design
Outdated systems still running the game
While the future calling but we stay the same

We got the tech, we got the means
To feed the world and fulfill all needs
But profit over people—that's the flaw
Artificial scarcity enforced by law

(Hook)
We can end it now or extend the pain
Critical moment—everything to gain

(Verse 2)
You can't solve problems with the same old mind
Gotta elevate thinking, redesign
The path ain't random—it's calculated
Every decision interconnected

If we choose synergy over greed
We eliminate suffering, fulfill every need
But if we stay blind, keep playing the role
We heading straight for systemic collapse as a whole

(Bridge)
This is the line…
This is the test…
What we choose…
Defines the rest…

(Hook – Outro)
Critical path—decision time
Evolution or decline

⚔ NEXT: THE CLIMAX

Now everything is set:

- ACT I → Awareness
- ACT II → The Enemy
- ACT III → Power Awakens

☞ Next is ACT IV: THE BATTLE (Tracks 13–16)
This is the most cinematic, intense, and symbolic part of the album:

- David vs Goliath fully realized
- Synergetics vs the Grunch

- Strategy → Impact → Collapse

If you're ready, I'll continue with the battle phase (this is where your David/Goliath imagery comes alive in lyrics).

continue

Now we enter the climactic phase—this is where everything converges:
strategy → execution → impact → collapse.

The sound here should feel cinematic, explosive, prophetic.

🎧 ACT IV: THE BATTLE

13. The Sling

(Hook)
I don't need a sword, I don't need a shield
Precision in my aim—that's the power I wield
Small in your eyes but I'm changing the field
This is the sling—watch the system get peeled

(Verse 1)
You looking for force, I'm looking for angles
You swinging with chaos, I'm solving the tangles
Every giant got a weakness inside
Not in his armor—but where truth collide

You think it's random how the stone get thrown?
Nah—it's calculated, perfectly known
Velocity, timing, direction aligned
Science and spirit combined in the mind

(Hook)
Simple tool—but the outcome vast
Right small move can outmatch mass

(Verse 2)
They laughed at the method, mocked the approach
Didn't understand what the pattern encroach

You bringing armies, I'm bringing design
You got the numbers—I mastered the line

This ain't about size, it's about insight
Seeing what's hidden beyond plain sight
One focused motion, no wasted swing
That's how a shepherd outmaneuver kings

(Bridge)
Not louder…
But sharper…
Not bigger…
But smarter…

(Hook – Outro)
The sling in my hand, but the power's within
The battle ain't muscle—the battle is mind

---

14. Laser Stone

(Hook)
One shot—focused beam
All that power in a single stream
No scatter, no wasted dream
Laser stone—cut through the scheme

(Verse 1)
This ain't just a rock—it's concentrated light
All of my focus compressed in the strike
You see a stone, I see a ray
Energy aligned in a perfect way

No hesitation, no second guess
Clarity sharp, no mental stress
When truth is focused, it penetrates
Every illusion disintegrates

(Hook)
Direct hit—no deflection
Truth don't miss with right direction

(Verse 2)
They built confusion to scatter your aim
Keep you distracted, divided in frame

But once you center and lock on the core
You break through barriers never before

This is intention at maximum force
Guided by knowledge, aligned with source
Not wild energy, not reckless fire
But disciplined thought that rise higher

(Bridge)
Condense the vision…
Align the mind…
Release the force…
Right on time…

(Hook – Outro)
Laser stone—silent but deadly
One true strike and the giant unsteady

---

15. Goliath System

(Hook)
Big body, loud voice, heavy with pride
But every giant got a weakness inside
System so strong but it built on a lie
Hit the right point—watch it all divide

(Verse 1)
Layers of power stacked to the sky
Looks unbreakable—but don't ask why
Foundation shaky but covered in gold
A fragile system pretending it's bold

They flex with wealth, they flex with might
But can't withstand a focused light
Too much weight at the very top
One imbalance make the whole thing drop

(Hook)
The bigger they stand, the harder they fall
One small crack can dismantle it all

(Verse 2)
Centralized power—that's the flaw
Too much control in too few hands' law

Once disrupted, it ripple through
Chain reaction they can't undo

You don't fight the giant head-on
You expose the flaw it standing on
Hit the structure, not the skin
That's how the collapse begin

(Bridge)
It's not invincible…
It just looks that way…
One truth revealed…
And it starts to sway…

(Hook – Outro)
Goliath system losing its stance
All it took was one right glance

---

16. Collapse of the Pyramid

(Hook)
It's falling down—can't hold the weight
Too much control concentrated in the state
Top too heavy, base too late
Pyramid collapse—it's sealed its fate

(Verse 1)
Cracks in the structure, pressure build
Truth like a force they never could shield
For years they ruled from elevated ground
Now the foundation breaking down

People awakening, seeing the code
Realizing the system was never their own
The higher they climbed, the further the fall
Now gravity answering back to it all

(Hook)
It's over now—the illusion gone
What they built wrong can't last long

(Verse 2)
Central control start losing grip
Decentral minds start to flip the script

No more blind trust, no more fear
Clarity rising, the end is near

The eye in the top can't watch it all
When the whole structure begin to fall
Power dissolving, scattered apart
Back to the people, back to the start

(Bridge)
From the top…
To the ground…
Silence breaks…
With a thunderous sound…

(Hook – Outro)
Pyramid down—ashes remain
Now we rebuild—but not the same

🌍 FINAL PHASE NEXT

Now the giant has fallen.

☞ What comes after destruction?

17. Ephemeralization

(Hook)
Doing more with less—that's the code
Less weight, more power in the flow
Efficiency rising, watch it grow
Ephemeral world—that's how we go

(Verse 1)
Less material, more capability
That's the shift from scarcity mentality
You thought power came from what you hold
But real power's in what you unfold

Technology light, but impact heavy
Systems refined, precise and steady
From massive machines to micro design
From wasted effort to optimized lines

(Hook)
Less force, more mind—redefine wealth
True advancement is systemic health

(Verse 2)
You don't need more—you need better use
Better structure, less abuse

Nature been showing it all along
Efficiency quiet but always strong

The giants hoard, but the wise distribute
Flow of energy—that's the attribute
When nothing is wasted, everything rise
That's the future they tried to disguise

(Bridge)
Less weight…
More reach…
Less cost…
More each…

(Hook – Outro)
Ephemeral shift—now you see
Abundance born from efficiency

---

18. World Without Scarcity

(Hook)
Ain't no lack—just misdesign
Enough for all if we realign
They sold you fear but it's all a lie
We can feed the world—no one gotta die

(Verse 1)
Fields full of food but it's locked away
Prices too high so it rot away
Homes stand empty, people in streets
That's not shortage—that's defeat

Artificial lack for controlled demand
So they keep the power in a few hands
But if we redesign distribution flow
We eliminate hunger across the globe

(Hook)
It's not the planet—it's how we run it
We got the wealth—they just don't want it

(Verse 2)
Energy free if we tap it right
Sun above shining day and night

Water abundant, land still wide
But systems block what nature provide

We don’t need charity—we need change
Systemic shift, rearrange the frame
From profit-first to human need
That’s how we plant a different seed

(Bridge)
No more hunger…
No more fear…
When we redesign…
Everything clear…

(Hook – Outro)
World without scarcity—vision true
The future waiting on what we do

---

19. Synergy Nation

(Hook)
Not me alone—it’s we combined
Greater than the sum when we align
Different parts but one design
Synergy nation—redefine

(Verse 1)
You got a gift, I got a role
Individually strong, together whole
No competition—just contribution
That’s the path to real evolution

You don’t lose when another rise
That’s the lie they used to divide
In synergy, we multiply
Collective strength amplified

(Hook)
One plus one ain’t equal two
When synergy hit—it becomes something new

(Verse 2)
Different cultures, different minds
All connected through deeper lines

Not uniform—but unified
That's the balance we never tried

When every voice find its place
We unlock power at a higher base
No hierarchy, no control
Just coordinated living as a whole

(Bridge)
Not divided…
Not alone…
Every part…
Build the whole…

(Hook – Outro)
Synergy nation—now we see
The power of true unity

---

20. New Earth Blueprint (Outro)

(Hook)
We redesign, we realign
A new earth built by a higher mind
No more control, no more blind
Blueprint written—clear and defined

(Verse 1)
We seen the fall, we felt the pain
Now we rebuild, but not the same
No pyramids, no hidden hand
Just open systems across the land

Education free—truth at core
Teach the youth what they ignored
How systems work, how patterns flow
So they never trapped in what we know

(Hook)
No kings above, no chains below
Just balanced systems that truly grow

(Verse 2)
Energy clean, resources shared
No artificial fear implanted there

Technology guided by human good
Not profit-driven misunderstood

We move as one but think as all
No centralized power left to fall
Distributed minds, awakened state
That's how we build a world that's great

(Bridge)
From ashes rise…
A clearer way…
A brighter path…
A new today…

(Final Outro Spoken Word)
The giant was never invincible…
Only misunderstood.

The power was never external…
Only undiscovered.

The future was never ahead…
It was always waiting…

…for us to think differently.

(Hook – Final)
New earth blueprint—now it's real
Synergetics is the way we heal
