Album Title:

God Will Build His Kingdom With Servant Leadership
By: Solomon Ghandi (A.I Hip-Hop Artist)

Here is a professionally structured album description and artist profile that aligns with your concept, theology, and hip-hop narrative:

🎧 ALBUM DESCRIPTION

"God Will Build His Kingdom With Servant Leadership" — by Solomon Ghandi

This album is not merely a musical project—it is a theological manifesto expressed through hip-hop, a conceptual body of work that deconstructs the architecture of worldly power and reconstructs it through divine principles.

At its core, the album contrasts two opposing systems:

- The Pyramid System — a model of control, hierarchy, and domination rooted in ancient empires such as Egypt
- The Servant Leadership System — a divine model of humility, sacrifice, and empowerment fully revealed through Christ

The narrative unfolds in five acts, tracing a spiritual and historical arc:

ACT I — The Pyramid System (Control & Deception)

The album opens by examining ancient Egypt as the prototype of centralized power. The pyramid becomes both a literal and symbolic structure—representing a system where the many serve the few. Pharaoh embodies the apex of human pride, while the masses remain beneath, sustaining a hierarchy built on control.

Spiritual themes emerge as Egyptian deities are framed not merely as cultural artifacts, but as representations of distorted spiritual authority, echoing the archetype of rebellion and self-exaltation.

ACT II — The Interruption (Moses: The Servant Prototype)

The narrative shifts with the emergence of Moses, a reluctant leader called not by ambition but by divine assignment. His confrontation with Pharaoh represents the first major disruption of the pyramid system.

Through Moses, the album introduces a foundational principle:
true leadership begins with obedience, not control.

The Exodus becomes a metaphor for liberation—not just physical, but structural and spiritual.

ACT III — The Servant King (Christ the Fulfillment)

The conceptual climax centers on Jesus Christ, who redefines kingship entirely. Where Pharaoh ruled from above, Christ leads from below.

- The crown of gold is replaced with a crown of thorns
- The throne is replaced with a towel and basin
- The symbol of power becomes the cross

This act establishes the paradox that defines the Kingdom of God:
victory through sacrifice, authority through humility, and leadership through service.

ACT IV — The Revelation (Servant Leadership System)

The album then bridges ancient truth with modern theory through Robert K. Greenleaf, whose work formalized the concept of servant leadership in contemporary discourse.

Here, the symbolic inversion of the pyramid becomes explicit:

- The traditional pyramid (power concentrated at the top)
- The inverted pyramid (leaders supporting from below)

Together, they form the Star of David (✡)—presented in the album as a geometric metaphor for divine governance:
a system where heaven and earth, authority and service, intersect in balance.

ACT V — The Kingdom (Final Order)

The final act presents the ultimate vision: a Kingdom not governed by dominance, but by service.

- The last become first
- Servants become leaders
- Power is redistributed through humility

This is not a future ideal—it is a present calling. The album concludes with a prophetic assertion: God's Kingdom will not be built by rulers, but by servants.

🎤 ABOUT THE ARTIST — Solomon Ghandi

Solomon Ghandi is an A.I-powered hip-hop artist operating at the intersection of theology, philosophy, and socio-political critique. More than a musical persona, he represents a conceptual voice—a fusion of ancient wisdom and futuristic expression.

His work is defined by three core dimensions:

1. Conscious Hip-Hop as Doctrine

Solomon Ghandi does not create music for entertainment alone. His art functions as instruction, revelation, and disruption. Drawing from Scripture, philosophy, and historical systems, he uses lyricism to challenge dominant narratives around power, wealth, leadership, and spirituality.

2. Systemic Deconstruction

A recurring theme in his work is the exposure of hidden structures—political, economic, and spiritual systems that shape human behavior. Whether referencing ancient Egypt, modern capitalism, or institutional religion, his music interrogates how systems are built and who they serve.

3. Divine Reconstruction Through Christ

While his analysis is critical, his vision is constructive. At the center of his message is Jesus Christ as the ultimate model for transformation—not only of individuals, but of entire systems.

His artistic identity merges:

- The wisdom tradition of Solomon
- The philosophical rebellion associated with Gandhi (symbolically)
- The prophetic voice of Scripture

Artistic Positioning

Solomon Ghandi occupies a unique space in global hip-hop:

- Comparable to conscious artists, but more theologically structured
- Philosophical, yet deeply scripturally anchored
- Futuristic in delivery, but ancient in message

Mission Statement

To use A.I-driven hip-hop as a medium to:

- Reveal hidden systems of control
- Reintroduce divine principles of leadership
- Inspire a generation to transition from followers of power to servants of purpose

Closing Identity Statement

Solomon Ghandi is not just an artist.
He is a framework of thought, a prophetic instrument, and a sonic architect of the Servant Leadership Kingdom narrative.

Core Concept (Creative Direction)

This album is a theological hip-hop opera that contrasts two systems:

- The Pyramid System (Egypt / World System)
  Power flows downward. Control, fear, domination. Pharaoh as god.
- The Inverted Pyramid (Kingdom of God)
  Power flows upward through service. Christ at the bottom lifting all.

It draws parallels between:

- Ancient Egypt → centralized authoritarian systems
- Spiritual deception → false gods / pride / Luciferian structure
- Moses → prototype servant-leader
- Christ → fulfillment of servant kingship
- Robert K. Greenleaf → modern rediscovery of divine principle

The Star of David (✡) becomes a geometric metaphor:

- ▲ Pyramid (world power)
- ▼ Inverted Pyramid (servant leadership)
- ✡ Union = Divine Leadership Model

God Will Build His Kingdom With Servant Leadership

By: Solomon Ghandi

ACT I — THE PYRAMID SYSTEM (CONTROL & DECEPTION)

1. Stone Kingdoms & Silent Slaves

Verse 1
Granite empires built on human despair,
Angles aligned but injustice in the air,
Pharaoh at the top in a solar glare,
While millions down below never get a share

Verse 2
Hierarchy rigid like the stones they stack,
Power flows down but it never comes back,
Labor is currency, bodies in a rack,
System built strong but morality cracked

Verse 3
Pyramid rising like a god in the sand,
But every level crushing someone's hand,
Invisible pain in a visible plan,
Empire sustained by the suffering of man

Verse 4
But heaven recorded every buried cry,
Every silent tear that the earth passed by,
God saw the system no matter how high,
And prepared a disruption no throne could deny

---

2. Gods of Gold (False Thrones)

Verse 1
Golden idols glitter in the sun's reflection,
Spiritual systems masking deception,
Gods that were crafted for power projection,
Designed to control human perception

Verse 2
Ra in the sky, Horus in the sight,
False illumination posing as light,
Same ancient lie from the fall's first night,
"Rise to be God" — that Lucifer bite

Verse 3
Priests enforce what the throne declares,
Religion manipulated into snares,
Fear becomes doctrine, truth becomes rare,
Souls in bondage but nobody aware

Verse 4
But every false throne got a limited reign,
Every idol collapses under truth and pain,
God not competing in ego domain,
He dismantles systems that profit from chains

---

3. Pharaoh Complex

Verse 1
Man on a throne now calling himself divine,
Blurring the boundary between human and shrine,
Power intoxication corrupting the mind,
When ego ascends, truth falls behind

Verse 2
Pharaoh mentality still lives today,
Different attire but the same display,
Control the masses, dictate the way,
Claiming authority that leads them astray

Verse 3
Divine impersonation rooted in pride,
Rulers demanding the people comply,
Forgetting the fact that all men die,
Yet building a system that reaches the sky

Verse 4
But God resists every arrogant throne,
No man sustains what he claims as his own,
Kingdoms collapse when pride is grown,
Because only the Servant King stands alone

ACT II — THE INTERRUPTION (MOSES: THE SERVANT PROTOTYPE)

4. Burning Bush Protocol

Verse 1
From palace luxury to desert dust,
God broke the prince just to build the trust,
Forty-year silence dismantling lust,
Leadership forged when ego is crushed

Verse 2
Fire in the bush but it's not consumed,
Holy encounter in a desert room,
Voice from eternity breaking the gloom,
Calling a servant to challenge a doom

Verse 3
"I cannot speak," Moses confessed,
God said "Your weakness qualifies you best,"
Not chosen by skill or outward success,
But by surrender and willingness

Verse 4
Protocol clear — obedience first,
Not ambition, not ego, not power thirst,
Before confronting the empire's curse,
God forms the servant through internal reverse

5. Let My People Go

Verse 1
Staff in his hand, truth in his tone,

Standing before the most powerful throne,
“Let My people go,” the command was thrown,
Heaven confronting what man had grown

Verse 2
Pharaoh resisted, heart turned to stone,
Refusing the voice beyond his own,
System so deep it had overgrown,
Power so blind it couldn’t be shown

Verse 3
Plagues started striking the gods they praised,
Each one dismantling the myths they raised,
Darkness revealing the lies they embraced,
Judgment exposing what pride had faced

Verse 4
Servant leadership confronts the elite,
Truth doesn’t bow or accept defeat,
God uses the humble to bring down deceit,
And breaks every chain at the system’s seat

6. Red Sea Divide

Verse 1
Trapped between army and open sea,
No visible path to set them free,
Fear in the people, anxiety,
But God was writing a prophecy through moses

Verse 2
Stretch out the rod, watch waters split,
Impossible moments where faith must sit,
Ground became dry where chaos was lit,
Divine intervention rewriting the script

Verse 3
Pharaoh pursued with chariots fast,
Still chasing control from the past,
But systems collapse when they overlast,
And pride meets judgment at last

Verse 4
Waters returned, oppression erased,

Enemy swallowed, justice embraced,
Freedom established by divine grace,
Servant leadership leading the race

ACT III — THE SERVANT KING (CHRIST THE FULFILLMENT)

7. Crown of Thorns (Not Gold)

Verse 1
Expected a king with a sword in hand,
But got a Servant with a different plan,
No royal force, no army command,
Just truth and love that could withstand

Verse 2
Rejected Messiah, misunderstood role,
Healing the body while saving the soul,
Power redefined beyond control,
Authority rooted in making men whole

Verse 3
Thorns on His head instead of gold,
A suffering King as prophets foretold,
Blood writing stories eternity told,
Grace more valuable than riches untold

Verse 4
Cross became throne in a paradox reign,
Victory hidden in visible pain,
Servant leadership forever sustained,
Through the sacrifice no power could contain

---

8. Towel Over Throne

Verse 1
Disciples arguing status and rank,
While God in flesh grabbed water in a tank,

Knee to the ground, humility frank,
Redefining leadership point blank

Verse 2
Washed their feet like the lowest slave,
Demonstrating power through how you behave,
Not how you dominate or enslave,
But how you serve and how you save

Verse 3
"If I am Lord and I serve like this,
Then your understanding you must dismiss,"
Kingdom culture defined by this,
Greatness measured by selflessness

Verse 4
Towel became symbol greater than crown,
Raising the low while stepping down,
In God's Kingdom that's renown,
Where serving others earns the crown

9. Cross Over Crown

Verse 1
Crown rejected for a cross embraced by Christ,
Love took the place power once chased,
Justice and mercy perfectly placed,
Sin confronted, humanity graced

Verse 2
Nails didn't hold Him — love did,
Choice of sacrifice what He hid,
Saving the world was always the bid,
Through obedience to what God forbid

Verse 3
Death defeated by surrender's act,
Resurrection proving divine impact,
Kingdom authority fully intact,
Through a Servant's covenant contract

Verse 4
Cross over crown — the Kingdom decree,
Lose your life to truly be free,

Servant leadership eternally,
The highest power in humility

ACT IV — THE REVELATION (SERVANT LEADERSHIP SYSTEM)

10. Greenleaf Doctrine

Verse 1
Robert K. Greenleaf saw what heaven designed,
Servant-first leadership reshaping the mind,
Measure a leader by who they refine,
Not how they rise but who they align

Verse 2
"Do they grow?" — the essential test,
Are people stronger after your presence?
Or just tools in your success?
That's the difference clearly expressed

Verse 3
Leader-first driven by ego and gain,
Servant-first lifting others from pain,
One builds empires destined to wane,
One builds people who eternally reign

Verse 4
Modern language for ancient truth,
Christ already lived the ultimate proof,
Greenleaf revealed it to modern youth,
Servant leadership is the Kingdom's root

11. The Inverted Pyramid

Verse 1
Flip the structure, reverse the flow,
God's design the world don't know,
Top becomes bottom in Kingdom glow,
Servants become the base below

Verse 2
Carrying burdens others can’t hold,
Strength in humility, courage in soul,
Leadership deeper than titles of gold,
Measured by how much love you unfold

Verse 3
Pharaoh climbed, Christ came down,
One sought power, one dropped the crown,
One ruled through fear across the town,
One served in silence without renown

Verse 4
Now the structure eternally stands,
Built on service not shifting sands,
God’s blueprint in human hands,
Inverted pyramid across the lands

---

12. Star of Dominion (✡ Star of David)

Verse 1
Triangle rising — system of man,
Triangle falling — God’s master plan,
Intersect lines reveal what began,
Heaven restoring the original plan

Verse 2
Pyramid power meets servant grace,
Two dimensions in one sacred space,
Balance restored in divine embrace,
Truth reflected in geometric trace

Verse 3
Not just symbol but structure divine,
Leadership model across all time,
Power and service perfectly align,
Kingdom authority by design

Verse 4
Star of dominion — final display,
Where human pride is taken away,
Servant leadership leads the way,
And God’s Kingdom forever will stay

ACT V — THE KINGDOM (FINAL ORDER)

13. Last Shall Lead

Verse 1
Those overlooked now taking the stage,
Those once silent now turning the page,
Kingdom reversal defining the age,
Servants now leading the righteous wage

Verse 2
No more hierarchy rooted in pride,
No more systems where truth must hide,
Justice and mercy now unified,
God’s perfect order fully applied

Verse 3
Meek inherit what power denied,
Humble exalted, ego denied,
Truth once buried now amplified,
Servant leadership glorified

Verse 4
The last now first in divine decree,
Freedom established eternally,
Kingdom built on humility,
Where leaders serve in purity

---

14. Servants Reign

Verse 1
Final vision — the Kingdom stands,
Not built by force but servant hands,
No oppression across the lands,
Only love fulfilling commands

Verse 2
Christ at the center, Servant King,

Eternal authority that love can bring,
Every servant now flourishing,
Under the reign of the suffering King

Verse 3
All who served now wear the crown,
Not through pride but laying it down,
Heaven's order fully renown,
Servant leadership all around

Verse 4
Servants reign — the final truth,
God's original design in full proof,
From Egypt's chains to Kingdom youth,
Servant leadership is the root

15. BONUS TRACK — "Coaching, Not Controlling"

(Theme: True leadership develops people instead of dominating them — modeled by Christ and echoed in servant leadership philosophy.)

🎤 Verse 1 — The Failure of Control

They wanna rule minds, press commands like a console,
Call it leadership, but it's really just control,
Micro-managin' souls, breakin' spirits for a goal,
Turnin' men into machines, never helpin' them be whole.

Pharaoh mindset, buildin' systems outta fear,
"If they think for themselves, then my throne disappear,"
So they tighten every grip, make obedience severe,
But control breeds rebellion, it don't cultivate a seer.

You can force compliance, but you can't produce growth,
You can chain the body, but the mind still loathes,
Leadership ain't dominion through imposed oaths,
It's awakenin' the purpose that the Most High wrote.

Look at Moses, he ain't coerce the Israelites,
He pointed to the promise, said, "Walk toward the light,"
Didn't drag them outta Egypt with psychological might,
God led, Moses coached — gave vision, gave sight.

🖊 Verse 2 — Christ the Master Coach

Now look at Jesus Christ — never forced a man to stay,
Said "Follow Me," but let 'em walk away,
Rich young ruler turned back that day,
No manipulation — truth don't beg or sway.

He trained fishermen, gave 'em vision to expand,
Didn't dominate their will, He developed their stand,
Took Peter from a rock to a shepherd of the land,
That's coaching — buildin' leaders, not demandin' a brand.

Washed their feet, didn't flex divine rank,
Poured into their souls like deposits in a bank,
Empowered every disciple, gave 'em purpose in the tank,
Now they movin' kingdoms forward without fear or a flank.

A controller says, "Depend on me forever,"
But a coach says, "Grow — you can do better,"
One builds chains, the other cuts the tether,
Christ built apostles — now they reign together.

🖊 Verse 3 — The Greenleaf Lens

Modern lens came through Robert K. Greenleaf vision,
Servant first mindset — that's the real commission,
Not "How many follow?" but "How many risen?"
From your leadership touch — that's the true metric given.

He said, "Do they grow? Do they rise? Do they lead?"
Or they stuck in dependency, unable to proceed?
If your presence creates weakness, that's a toxic seed,
But a servant-leader cultivates autonomous breed.

Controllers fear successors — they guardin' the gate,
But coaches build replacements — that's how kingdoms elevate,
One hoards power, the other multiplies fate,
That's the difference between collapse and a legacy state.

So check your leadership — is it fear-based design?
Or you buildin' up minds that can function divine?
If they need you forever, then you crossin' the line,
God's leaders create leaders — that's the ultimate sign.

🎤 Verse 4 — The Kingdom Principle

In the Kingdom of God, there's no forced compliance,
It's Spirit-led growth, not oppressive alliance,
Truth invites — it don't silence defiance,
It transforms from within, builds eternal reliance.

God don't control — He calls and reveals,
Gives you the will, then He tests what you feel,
That's why obedience gotta come from what's real,
Not programmed devotion that ain't spiritually sealed.

Servant leadership — that's divine architecture,
Coaching hearts, not imposing structure,
Buildin' sons, not slaves under pressure,
That's the blueprint Christ gave — eternal lecture.

So when you lead, don't dominate the soul,
Speak life, give vision, help 'em take control,
'Cause the highest form of power ain't makin' them fold —
It's makin' them rise till they walk in their role.

🎶 Hook (Repeat)

Don't control me — coach me to grow,
Plant the seed, let the purpose flow,
Real leaders don't tighten the hold,
They build kings outta hearts, not souls they control.

🎧 Outro — Spoken Word

Pharaoh controlled.
Christ coached.

One built slaves.
The other built sons.

One demanded submission.
The other inspired transformation.

The Kingdom of God… is not built by control —
but by coaching through love, truth, and service.

Here is the refined and expanded version of your bonus track, now emphasizing Leo's song, spirit, and the revelation after his disappearance, with deeper narrative clarity and theological alignment:

16. (BONUS TRACK): "The Servant Was the Leader (Leo's Song)"

Intro (Spoken Word)

Yeah…
It wasn't his strength alone…
It was his spirit… his song…
They didn't lose a servant…
They lost the source…

Hook (Chorus)

The servant was the leader all along
Held the weight, gave the journey a song
When he disappeared, everything went wrong
Now we see the truth — we were blind for so long

The servant was the leader, spirit kept it alive
Not the loudest voice, but the reason they survived
When he vanished, truth began to arrive
The one they called least was the one who supplied

Verse 1 — Leo's Spirit & Song

Reading Hermann Hesse, saw a mystery unfold
Band on a journey, chasing truth untold
But Leo in the background carried something more gold
Not just hands that served — but a spirit that consoled

Yeah, he sang when the road got cold
Lifted their hearts when the mission felt old
His voice was the glue, kept the vision controlled
Not by command, but a presence that held

He wasn't just working — he was sustaining the flow
Every note that he sang made the whole journey grow
They thought it was normal, didn't really know
That the strength of the system was the servant below

Verse 2 — The Disappearance & Collapse

Then one day Leo gone — no song in the air
No spirit to guide, just confusion and fear
Steps turned heavy, purpose unclear
What they carried before now they couldn't bear

The journey collapsed — not from external war
But the absence of what they ignored before
No unity, no vision, no internal core
They lost what was vital but thought it was poor

See, they thought leadership sat at the top
But the real foundation was what never got props
When the servant disappeared, the system just dropped
Revealing the truth — he was holding the plot

Verse 3 — The Revelation of Leo

Years later wandering, searching for sense
The narrator still broken, still feeling the absence
Then he finds Leo again — now the veil is intense
Truth hits deeper than past experience

Brought to the Order, now the mystery clear
Leo wasn't a servant — he was leading from here
The head of the whole, the one they held near
But never discerned through their pride and their fear

His song wasn't random, his spirit wasn't small
He was guiding the journey, sustaining them all
What they called "least" was the greatest of all
Now the hidden foundation is visibly tall

Verse 4 — Christ in Leo's Pattern

Jesus Christ walked the earth with that same design
Serving in silence but carrying the divine
John 13 — washing feet, redefining the line
Between who leads and who shines

Matthew 20:28 — He came to serve
Not to be served, though He deserved
Isaiah 53 — despised and unheard
Yet carrying a power the world never observed

Like Leo, His spirit sustained the way
Healing, teaching, giving life each day
But when He was taken and laid away
The disciples collapsed — just like Hesse's display

Verse 5 — Resurrection & Final Understanding

But the grave couldn't hold what the servant concealed
Three days later — the truth revealed
Matthew 28:18 — authority sealed
The servant is the King — now the Kingdom is real

Philippians 2:7 — He emptied His throne
Took the form of a servant, walked among His own
Now exalted above, His identity shown
What was hidden in service is now fully known

Just like Leo revealed as the head of the way
Christ revealed Himself as the truth and the way
The servant ain't weak — that's the system's decay
True power is service — that's the Kingdom's display

Bridge

It was the song…
It was the spirit…
Not the position…
That's what did it…

You can build a system, but it won't last long
If you remove the servant who carries the song

Hook (Outro)

The servant was the leader all along
Held the weight, gave the journey a song
When he disappeared, everything went wrong
Now we see the truth — we were blind for so long

The servant is the King, yeah the system reversed
Last shall be first — that's the Kingdom verse
If you wanna lead, then you gotta serve first
That's the law of Christ — yeah, the final universe

Here is a fully developed bonus track that integrates Lao-Tzu, Chanakya, ancient servant leadership, and Christ, with depth, scripture, and at least four strong verses:

---

17. (BONUS TRACK): "Ancient Code of the Servant King"

Intro (Spoken Word)

Before empires rose…
Before systems were crowned…
The truth was already written…
The servant… is the leader…

Hook (Chorus)

Ancient code, yeah it's written in the scrolls
Servant wears the crown, though the world don't know
Hidden in the past, now the future unfolds
Kingdom built on service — that's the truth we hold

They feared him, they praised him, then they cast him aside
Didn't recognize the King walking humble in stride
Now the prophecy clear, no more reason to hide
Servant is the ruler — that's the Kingdom design

Verse 1 — Ancient Foundations (Chanakya)

Before modern thought, before systems we claim
There was wisdom on leadership etched in the flame
Chanakya wrote it down, never chasing the fame
In Arthashastra, redefining the game

"The king ain't himself what he chooses as right
But what pleases the people — that's the true sight"
A ruler as servant? That shattered their might
A paid steward of people, not a god in their sight

This ain't new, it's ancient, embedded in time
Before pyramids rose and corrupted the mind
Before power got twisted and rulers went blind
Truth was service — that was leadership's design

Verse 2 — Lao-Tzu & the Hidden Leader

Then the East spoke again through Lao-Tzu's tone
In the Tao Te Ching, truth quietly shown
Not loud like empires, not carved into stone
But a whisper of wisdom the world should've known

"The highest type of ruler is barely perceived
Next loved, next feared, next hated and grieved
When faith disappears, betrayal conceived
But the Sage moves in silence, no need to be believed

When the work is complete, and the mission is done
People say 'we achieved it' — not praising the one
Self-effacing, no boasting, no need to outrun
That's the mark of a leader whose will aligns with the Son

Verse 3 — Christ Fulfills the Ancient Pattern

Jesus Christ came walking that ancient design
The highest of rulers but hidden in time
Not forcing His presence, not seeking a shrine
But serving in silence with power divine

They barely perceived Him — just a carpenter's son
Then they praised Him for miracles, signs He had done
Then they feared His authority — couldn't outrun
Then despised and rejected Him — prophecy spun

Isaiah 53:3–5, yeah the scripture aligned
"He was despised, rejected, acquainted with grind
Man of sorrows, grief carried for all mankind
But we hid our faces, truth we declined

He was wounded for sin, bruised for iniquity
Chastisement brought peace — redefining victory
Stripes brought healing, rewriting history
Servant on a cross, but the King of eternity"

Verse 4 — The Kingdom Revelation

See the pattern consistent from ancient to now
From Chanakya's wisdom to Lao-Tzu's vow
To Christ on the cross with thorns on His brow
Servant leadership — that's the ultimate power

The world wants control, domination, command
But the Kingdom is built by a servant's hand
Not ruling by force, but fulfilling God's plan
Lifting up others — that's where leaders stand

The highest ain't loud, don't demand to be seen
Moves through the people, works behind the scene
When the mission complete, they say "we achieved"
Not knowing the servant was the source of the dream

Bridge

Ancient truth… modern eyes…
Hidden kings… in disguise…

If you wanna lead… then deny your pride…
That's the Kingdom code you can't override…

Hook (Outro)

Ancient code, yeah it's written in the scrolls
Servant wears the crown, though the world don't know
Hidden in the past, now the future unfolds
Kingdom built on service — that's the truth we hold

They feared him, they praised him, then they cast him aside
Now we see the King they once crucified
Servant is the ruler — no more divide
That's the Kingdom forever — no system can hide
